

VERMONT LAW SCHOOL & MCGILL FACULTY OF LAW

PRESENT

A JOINT CROSS-BORDER WORKSHOP ON

SUSTAINABILITY

ACHIEVING ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY IN THE FACE OF CLIMATE CHANGE

June 11, 2011, 9:00 - 17:30

Room 312, New Chancellor Day Hall, Faculty of Law, McGill University
Montreal, Quebec, Canada

AGENDA

Session 1. 9:00 - 10:30. Ecology and Policy

- Jason J. Czarnezki, Professor of Law, Vermont Law School: The Information Approach to Creating a Sustainable Food System: Implementation of Environmental Life-Cycle Labeling for Food.
- Raphaël Fischler, Associate Professor and Director, McGill School of Urban Planning: Social Regulation and Land Use Planning Policy.
- Richard Janda, Associate Professor of Law, McGill Faculty of Law: The Justice Foundations of Ecological Economics.
- Patrick Parenteau, Professor of Law, Vermont Law School: Ecosystem Effects of Climate Change.

BREAK. 10:30 - 10:45

Session 2. 10:45 - 12:15. Domestic Law

- Martha L. Judy, Professor of Law, Vermont Law School: Potentially Socially Responsible CERCLA?
- Hoi Kong, Assistant Professor of Law, McGill Faculty of Law: Sustainable Development and Land Use Regulation in Canada.
- Mark Latham, Professor of Law, Vermont Law School: Climate Change—Just Say No!
- Gregory Mikkleson, Associate Professor, McGill School of the Environment: Ecology and Democracy.

LUNCH. 12:15 - 1:15

Session 3. 13:15 - 14:45. Comparative Coastal Zone Management

- Richard O. Brooks, Professor of Law Emeritus, Vermont Law School: Making the "Mediterranean of the Western Hemisphere" a Sustainable Community: Connecticut's Coastal Management Program and Long Island Sound.
- Aldo Chircop, Professor of Law, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University: Legal Frameworks for Integrated Coastal and Ocean Management in Canada and the EU—Some Insights from Comparative Analysis.
- Briana Collier, JD 2011, Vermont Law School: Orchestrating our Oceans: Effectively Implementing Coastal Marine Spatial Planning in the U.S.
- L. Kinvin Wroth, Professor of Law, Vermont Law School: Six Flags over Champlain Revisited—A Case for Coastal Zone Management or Coastal Marine Spatial Planning?

BREAK. 12:15 - 15:00

Session 4. 15:00 - 16:15. Binational Management & Comparative Law

- Robert P. Godin, Adjunct Professor of Law, McGill Faculty of Law, and Martin Mimeault, Quebec Ministry of Sustainable Development, Environment and Parks: Transnational Sustainability Regulation: Landfill Expansion in Franklin County, on the New York and Quebec Borders.
- Sara Phillips, LLM candidate, McGill Faculty of Law and School of Environment: Fracturing of Nations: Regulatory Reform and Comparative Analysis of Hydraulic Fracturing in Canada and the United States.
- Jack Tuholske, Visiting Professor of Law, Vermont Law School: The Management of Transboundary Resources—the North Fork of the Flathead.

Session 5. 16:15 - 17:30. International Law

- Betsy Baker, Associate Professor of Law, and Samantha Fow, JD 2012, Vermont Law School: Sustainability as a Principle of Resource Exploitation in the Arctic.
- Meredith Cairns, BCL/LLB candidate, McGill Faculty of Law: Challenges to the Sustainability of Container Shipping in the Arctic.
- Konstantia Koutouki, Assistant Professor, University of Montréal Faculty of Law: How International Law Has Evolved to Address Sustainable Development over the Last Two Decades, from the 1992 Rio Earth Summit towards the Coming 2012 Rio+20 Summit.

