

CLASS CANCELLATIONS

Canceled classes are usually listed on the VLS website and the IT website. Notice may also be sent via email.

SCHOOL CANCELLATIONS / DELAYED OPENINGS

Vermont Law School rarely closes. If weather conditions are very poor, we are more likely to delay classes than to close the school entirely. A delayed opening means that the school opens at 9:45 AM in time for second period (9:55 AM) classes. In all cases, each person should use their own best judgment about traveling in bad weather conditions.

Information about a delay or closing will be transmitted via:

- VLS Web page - www.vermontlaw.edu/
- Sovernet's 'SNOW DAYS ON THE WEB' <http://corp.sover.net/schoolclosings/>
- WPTZ-TV (Channel 5)
- VLS email system
- VLS telephone switchboard 802-831-1000

If school is closed or there is a delayed opening, this information will be available on the VLS switchboard, i.e., the voice mail public greeting (802-831-1000). If you hear the normal greeting, school is open.

The decision to cancel or delay school is usually made by 6:00 AM so that the information can be disbursed as early as possible. You may want to check more than one source of information in the event that there is a lag in the posting of the information.

Please note that email and voice mail messages for cancellation or delay will always contain the day and date. For example, "It is Tuesday, February 5th, and Vermont Law School has a delayed opening today."

The weather in Vermont varies considerably from location to location; it may not be possible for us to know what the conditions are like in your particular area. If you commute to school, please use good judgment in deciding whether the conditions in your area are safe for travel. Students are responsible for checking announcements to determine whether school will be canceled or have a delayed opening.
