

Stephanie A. Clark, Director

National Center on Restorative Justice at Vermont Law School
Rogers House 106
164 Chelsea Street, P.O. Box 96, South Royalton, VT 05068
(802) 831-1315 ~ sclark@vermontlaw.edu

Professional Experience

Director, Center for Justice Reform, at Vermont Law School, Jul. 2019 - Present

Assistant Director, Center for Justice Reform at Vermont Law School, Jul. 2018 - Jul. 2019

2018 International Restorative Justice Conference Coordinator for Vermont Law School, Sep. 2017 - Jun. 2018

Windsor County DUI Treatment Docket Coordinator, Windsor Superior Court, Criminal Division, and Consultant to Vermont Judiciary, Aug. 2013 – Sept. 2016

Associate Attorney, Vitt, Brannen & Loftus, PLC, Sept. 2012 - Jan. 2013

Associate Attorney, Brannen, Dunn & Loftus, PLLC (a previous affiliate of Potter Stewart, Jr. Law Offices, P.C.), Sept. 2011 – Sept. 2012

Associate Attorney, Caldwell Law, Oct. 2007 – Oct. 2008, part-time

Clerkship, Rutland Superior Court, Jul. 2003 – Mar. 2004, part-time

Magistrate, Licking County Court of Common Pleas, General Division, Aug. 1997 – Mar. 2003

Teaching and Training

Vermont Law School, ongoing in current curriculum:

Residential and online: “Ethics and Restorative Justice”

Residential and online: “Clemency, Pardon, and Expungement”

Vermont Law School Advanced Criminal Seminar, Annually 2016 - 2018

Single class: “Introduction to Treatment Courts”

New England Association of Drug Court Professionals, Fall Conference 2019

“Circle Process for Team Building for Treatment Court Teams”

Vital Communities Upper Valley Leadership: Justice Day, Annually from 2014
“Windsor County DUI Treatment Docket,” “Treatment Courts,” and “Restorative Justice”

New England Association of Drug Court Professionals, Fall Conference 2015
“Specialty Courts Panel” and the “Vermont DUI Model Panel”

International Association of Chemical Testing, Conference 2015
“Windsor County DUI Treatment Docket”

Hartford Police Department: Citizens Academy Class, Nov. 2014
“Windsor County DUI Treatment Docket Panel”

Impaired Driver Summit, Mar. 2014
“Windsor County DUI Treatment Docket Panel”

Ohio Association of Magistrates, Spring Conference 2002
“Administrative Appeals”

Licking County Sheriff and Heath Police Departments, In-service training 2002
“Stalking Civil Protection Orders”

Ohio Judicial College, Magistrate’s Fall Conference 2001
“Stalking Civil Protection Orders”

Education and Bar Admissions

Western New England University School of Law, J.D., May 1996
The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, Visiting student, 1995-1996
Lyndon State College, B.S., May 1992

Vermont - admitted 2004 Ohio - admitted 1996 (inactive)

Professional Associations and Memberships

New England Association of Drug Court Professionals, 2014 - present
Vermont Bar Association, 2004 – present
Ohio State Bar Association, 1997 – 2004
Licking County Bar Association, 1997 – 2003
Secretary for LCBA Executive Committee, 2000 – 2002
Ohio Association of Magistrates, 1997 – spring 2003
Board representative for general division and appellate magistrates, fall 2000 – 2002
