What is the CARES Act? The CARES Act, which appropriated the Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds (HEERF), provides students who are or could be eligible to participate in programs under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (i.e., eligible for federal student financial aid), with emergency financial aid grants to help cover expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus. Grants will be distributed to College students with the greatest demonstrated financial need as determined through the 2019-2020 application for financial assistance.

What is the source of funding for these emergency grants? HEERF will be the funding source for students eligible for Title IV funds.

Who is eligible to receive emergency assistance funds? Eligibility will include students who were enrolled in the Spring 2020 term who are still enrolled at Vermont Law School as of 7/30/2020. All eligible students will automatically be offered a minimum award of $100. Additional requests will be managed through the Hardship Scholarship Application process.

How do students claim these funds? In order to receive their CARES award they must log into myfinaid.vermontlaw.edu and change the status of the CARES award on their account from "Pending" to "Accepted" and hit the "Submit" button to confirm. If a student does not see a CARES award on their account, they may contact the Financial Aid Office (finaid@vermontlaw.edu) to provide documentation of their eligibility for Federal Student Aid.

How will the funds be processed? After accepting the award through the Financial Aid portal site, the cash grant will be disbursed to your student account for the purpose of directly issuing the funds to you. Cash grants will not be applied against any existing balance due to the College. Students should make separate arrangements to resolve any outstanding balances on their Vermont Law School student account. The cash grant will be identified on the student account as "CARES Act Funds." Campus Billing will be processing payments during the last week of July 2020.
