Readings for the first class (Monday, August 30)

First, sign up for the course TWEN site. On TWEN, look for: Legal Analysis and Writing I (Johnson) Fall 2021. Then, for our first class, please read the following:

1. Pages 1-11 of the Course Packet. You can find the Course Packet on the course TWEN site in a folder under Course Materials. I divided the Course Packet into three parts. You can find Pages 1-11 in Part 1. The Bookstore does not sell hardcopies of the Course Packet—it is only available on the course TWEN site.
2. Pages 3-6 of Plain English for Lawyers (6th edition) (purchased at the Bookstore).
3. My Vermont Bar Journal column on the Singular They. You can find this column on the course TWEN site, also under Course Materials.

You will meet with your Dean's Fellows on Wednesday. You also have to sign up for the Dean's Fellows TWEN site. They will explain this on Wednesday.

See you soon, and Welcome to Vermont Law School!
