Dear students,

For our first class, please read pages 1-41 in the Assignment No. 1 Folder. You can find that Folder on the course TWEN site under Course Materials. Come to class prepared to discuss Judge Sutton’s defense of state constitutional law.

Start thinking about possible topics for your essay on state constitutional law. I am happy to discuss your ideas for the paper even before the first class. You can get a sense of what you might write about from the sample essay and essay titles in the assigned readings for the first class. Or, you can wait until I explain the assignment in detail in our first class.

See you then!
