Initial Pre-Class Assignments
There are to do before we meet for our first class on Friday, July 15. These are copied from the syllabus.

1. Read both The Little Book of Restorative Justice by Howard Zehr and The Little Book of Race and Restorative Justice by Fania Davis. Come prepared to engage in discussion about What resonated? and What insights did you have? from these readings. Bring notes if that would be helpful.

2. It is recommended that students schedule an observation of a restorative practice prior to the class start and no later than July 28, 2022. Scheduling this observation prior to the start of class is recommended. Look up area Community Justice Centers or Court Diversion Programs and contact the program to set this up.

The last scheduled in-person class in August 5.

Thanks, Jon
