VERMONT LAW SCHOOL

Semester Exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law FALL 2011 APPLICATION FORM

Applicants for one-semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law must complete this form and submit it with the additional materials listed at the top of page 3 to Casey Stevens (1st floor of the China Partnership building) before 12:00 noon on Friday, October 14, 2011.

Candidate's Full Name:		ID#
	(Please print)
Program at VLS (circle one)	J.D.	Joint J.D./M.E.L.P.
Class Rank out of (See the Registrar to obtain this i
In-session Contact Information	:
Mailing Address	Phone	_
City, State	Zip
Summer Contact Information ((if different from above):
Mailing Address	Phone	_
City, State	Zip
Email (if different from your V	LS email address):

$\begin{tabular}{ll} VERMONT\ LAW\ SCHOOL \\ Semester\ Exchange\ with\ Renmin\ University\ of\ China\ School\ of\ Law \\ Application\ Form \\ Page\ 2\ of\ 3 \end{tabular}$

Application Questions:

enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Master of Chinese Law program, which is taught in English. However, if students have sufficient proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, they will be eligible to enroll foredit in courses in Renmin's Juris Master, LL.B. and LL.M. curriculum (taught in Chinese), which offers many more courses than the Master of Chinese Law program. Please identify your Mandarin Chinese proficiency to the extent you can. a. What is your level of proficiency in Mandarin Chinese? . Reading: Fair Good Fluent Writing: Fair Good Fluent Speaking: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students.	1.	Have you undertak If yes, please expla			gn study or work before e	nrolling in lav Yes	w school? No
b. How many semester or quarter hours of law school credit did you receive? 3. Language proficiency: Applying for the semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law does not require Mandarin Chinese proficiency because VLS students will be eligible enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Master of Chinese Law program, which is taught in English. However, if students have sufficient proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, they will be eligible to enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Juris Master, LL.B. and LL.M. curriculum (taught in Chinese), which offers many more courses than the Master of Chinese Law program. Please identify your Mandarin Chinese proficiency to the extent you can. a. What is your level of proficiency in Mandarin Chinese? . Reading: Fair Good Fluent Writing: Fair Good Fluent Speaking: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students are proficiency in the proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students are proficiency.
b. How many semester or quarter hours of law school credit did you receive? 3. Language proficiency: Applying for the semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law does not require Mandarin Chinese proficiency because VLS students will be eligible enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Master of Chinese Law program, which is taught in English. However, if students have sufficient proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, they will be eligible to enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Juris Master, LL.B. and LL.M. curriculum (taught in Chinese), which offers many more courses than the Master of Chinese Law program. Please identify your Mandarin Chinese proficiency to the extent you can. a. What is your level of proficiency in Mandarin Chinese? . Reading: Fair Good Fluent Writing: Fair Good Fluent Speaking: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students are proficiency in the proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students are proficiency.
b. How many semester or quarter hours of law school credit did you receive? 3. Language proficiency: Applying for the semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law does not require Mandarin Chinese proficiency because VLS students will be eligible enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Master of Chinese Law program, which is taught in English. However, if students have sufficient proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, they will be eligible to enroll for redit in courses in Renmin's Juris Master, LL.B. and LL.M. curriculum (taught in Chinese), which offers many more courses than the Master of Chinese Law program. Please identify your Mandarin Chinese proficiency to the extent you can. a. What is your level of proficiency in Mandarin Chinese? . Reading: Fair Good Fluent Writing: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students are proficiency.
b. How many semester or quarter hours of law school credit did you receive? 3. Language proficiency: Applying for the semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law does not require Mandarin Chinese proficiency because VLS students will be eligible enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Master of Chinese Law program, which is taught in English. However, if students have sufficient proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, they will be eligible to enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Juris Master, LL.B. and LL.M. curriculum (taught in Chinese), which offers many more courses than the Master of Chinese Law program. Please identify your Mandarin Chinese proficiency to the extent you can. a. What is your level of proficiency in Mandarin Chinese? . Reading: Fair Good Fluent Writing: Fair Good Fluent Speaking: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students and the seminary of the seminary previously students.	2.	Have you undertake	en any fo	reign stu	dy or work since you enro
3. Language proficiency: Applying for the semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law does not require Mandarin Chinese proficiency because VLS students will be eligible enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Master of Chinese Law program, which is taught in English. However, if students have sufficient proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, they will be eligible to enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Juris Master, LL.B. and LL.M. curriculum (taught in Chinese), which offers many more courses than the Master of Chinese Law program. Please identify your Mandarin Chinese proficiency to the extent you can. a. What is your level of proficiency in Mandarin Chinese? . Reading: Fair Good Fluent Writing: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students.		a. If yes, please exp	olain briet	fly.
3. Language proficiency: Applying for the semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law does not require Mandarin Chinese proficiency because VLS students will be eligible enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Master of Chinese Law program, which is taught in English. However, if students have sufficient proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, they will be eligible to enroll for credit in courses in Renmin's Juris Master, LL.B. and LL.M. curriculum (taught in Chinese), which offers many more courses than the Master of Chinese Law program. Please identify your Mandarin Chinese proficiency to the extent you can. a. What is your level of proficiency in Mandarin Chinese? . Reading: Fair Good Fluent Writing: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously students.
Speaking: Fair Good Fluent Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously stud	Schoo enroll Howe credit offers	Language proficience of Law does not receive for credit in courses wer, if students have in courses in Renmir many more courses to see proficiency to the a. What is your level	ey: Apply quire Mar in Renmi sufficient a suris I was	ying for tondarin Chan's Master, Lower of the can.	he semester exchange with timese proficiency because er of Chinese Law prograncy in Mandarin Chinese, L.B. and LL.M. curriculu Chinese Law program. Plan Mandarin Chinese?	h Renmin Un e VLS student m, which is to they will be om (taught in O	niversity of China ts will be eligible to aught in English. eligible to enroll for Chinese), which Listening: Fair Good Fluent b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously stud		Writing:	Fair	Good	Fluent
b. How did you develop your level of proficiency? Please explain. If you have previously stud		Speaking:	Fair	Good	Fluent
		Listening:	Fair	Good	Fluent
worked, or lived abroad in a Mandarin speaking country or area, please also describe your experience, including relevant dates.		worked, or lived ab	road in a	Mandari	- ·	-	- ·

Please attach the following items; they are required as part of your application:

1.	A statement	of v	our e	ducational	objectives

- A statement as to how the semester exchange with Renmin University of China School of Law 2. relate to your educational and career objectives.

3. A	copy of your transcript in	ncluding your class rank.
	et with Jason Czarnezki, this cuss my application	he Faculty Director of the U	U.SChina Partnership for Environmental
	on Date	Signature
	Czarnezki will let you kn fill out to complete the pr	 	approved, and if so what additional form(s)
*****	*******	*********	*************
A1: 0.04:	an was isoa di	h
Applicati	on received: Date	by: (Casey Steve	ens)